

What are they saying...

Victory Christian Center's 22nd Annual

Free Family Christmas Dinner

You guys are fantastic! I'm so proud of what you're doing for the people of the City of Edmonton. I can't tell how thrilled I am to be here - it's an honour. You do such great work. This is the kind of event that reaches out to so many people, and it brings the city together. It's a nice, warm, friendly, Christian environment, and you can't beat this. People are smiling and happy at a time of year when they should be happy.

You've outdone yourselves and brought thousands and thousands from all the community together in the true Spirit of Christmas and the season of Christ. What a message that sends. This helps the disadvantaged and allows them to mix with other members of the community having a wonderful Christmas dinner and enjoying entertainment. There's a lot of unrest financially and economically throughout the world, and the people who are here have put aside the world economic woes for one evening and I think you've been very successful in doing that.

Victory Christian Center's 22nd Annual Christmas Dinner was a tremendous success. Over 400 volunteers joined together to make sure all in attendance enjoyed a Merry Christmas. Over 4000 people packed the Shaw Conference Centre for a festive turkey dinner that included free clothing and food hampers. There were also games, clowns, face painting, and presents for all the children.

This year:
Over 600 food hampers were given away;
every child in attendance received a toy;
over 200 gifts were given to adults; and over 10,000 articles of clothing were given away.

Also in attendance at the Banquet were Stephen Mandel, Mayor of the City of Edmonton, Peter Goldring, MP Edmonton Centre East, and Brent Rathberger, MP St. Albert.

It was a wonderful evening for everyone involved. Children and families left the conference centre with smiles on their faces knowing that someone cares for them. As one attendee put it, "You guys are great! I look forward to this all year."

Thank you for helping Victory Christian Center make a difference in people's lives!
